FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1869.

THE TWO WAYS.

It has come to our knowledge that there is a very general feeling throughout this community in favour of some conserted and overt action, having in view a complete change in the political constitution and institutions of the Colony. We have long been aware of the existence of a similar feeling on the Mainland. It may be thought by some presumptuous on our part to lecture the people of Victoria as to their duty and true policy, in such an emergency; but what we may feel it our duty to say will doubtless be received by the great bulk of this intelligent community in the spirit in which it is offered. For years we have closely observed the political moves made on the Victoria chess-board, and common candor compells us to say that these moves have not always been tempered with sound discretion and conducted with that firmness and dignity which form such an essential element in reaching a successful issue. Effort has been directed too much against individuals, and too little against principles and systems, and has occasionally had imparted to it a complexion but too well calculated to completely neutralize all possible good results. Sometimes the effect has been to remove the goal still further off. The people have a good, strong case, if they have only the temper and discretion to make a good use of it. If their action be characterized by unanimity, dignity, discretion, and firmness, and if their demands be founded upon reason and justice, success is assured; but, if personalities and senseless vituperation are to be substituted for great public principles and calm argument, the cause is lost! What do the people want? An entirely new constitution, conferring upon the colonists the right to manage their own affairs, and comprising the essential essence and elements of Responsible Government. Such a change we hold to be a pre-requisite to the prosperity of the Colony and the contentment of the people. Removed so far from the mother country, it is simply impossible that our affairs can be properly administered by any and every Lord or Duke who may chance to be pitchforked into the Colonial Office. It is for such powers, then, that the people are now called upon to take a firm stand. Firmness in this case is a most essential element of success; and in order to be firm the position must be chosen with care and reason. To ask for those organic changes already indicated is to ask for no more than our common rights as British subjects, no more than was long ago conceded to our ancestors, no more than has been conceded to every British Colony that has had the manliness to stand up firmly and boldly and demand that which no power on earth has a moral right to withhold. As we have said, firmness is an essential element. The Colonial Office will set itself against any such change—stoutly oppose the relinquishment of patronage and power. The sweetest grass grows on those preserves called Crown Colonies. It is said that in the Alsatia of the Temple a tavern-keeper sought to quell a mutiny in his ordinary by entering with a drawn sword and demanding, "Who won't eat pork?" But when a Highlander drew his dirk and answered, "The deil ha'e me gif I eat yer stinkin' pork!" the rapier was sheathed, and mine host replied, "Oh, then, Sir, you shall have something else." We leave the reader to follow out the obvious illustration.

A CROSS GRAINED ANSWER TO A CROSS QUESTION.—A humorous fellow, a carpenter; being summoned as a witness on a trial for an assault, one of the counsel, who was much given to brow-beating the witnesses, asked him what distance he was from the parties when he saw the defendant strike the plantiff? The carpenter answered, "just four feet five inches and a half." "Pray thee fellow," says the counsel, how is it possible you can be so exact as to distance?" "I thought," says the carpenter, "that some fool or other might ask me, and so I measured it."

STARRING IT NORTH OF THE TWEED.—Mark Lemon, editor of Punch, has been playing Falstaff in Glasgow.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

CALIFORNIA.

VIRGINIA CITY, April 8—The Gold Hill mine still continues to burn as badly as ever owing to a cave in the Yellow Jacket. Nineteen dead bodies have been got out of the drifts and shafts of the burning mines—nine lay together where they had climbed to a drift one hundred feet above the thousand feet level.

Later—Efforts made in subduing the fire have been generally quite successful. The tunnel of the Yellow Jacket has been cleared of the obstructions caused by the cave, so that water could be got to bear on the fire. It is now reported there is no fire on the 800 feet level, and but little on the 700 feet level. It is hoped and expected that all the dead bodies will be got to the surface during the day. It is now confidently asserted that no material damage has been done to the claims. The hoisting works are perfect.

A CARD.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that I never received one dime from the Trustees or Creditors of the Estate of my late husband Philip Swigert. Mr. John Dickson, one of the Trustees under Deed of Assignment of the Estate of Swigert & Teague, came to me the night my husband died, and told me he would sell the Estate and give me all he could realize; as I am informed, the Estate realized about $1,200. Mr. John Dickson, on several occasions, told me that he would give me what ever he received from the Estate, and that he knew the rest of the Creditors would do the same, as they were good men. If I had been told the truth, I would not have been dissatisfied, but being deceived by one whom I thought my friend, I feel in duty bound to let the public know how I have been treated.

OUR INDIAN EMPIRE.

Although the reception with which Lord Mayo met upon his arrival in British India, was of the most gratifying and luxurious character, yet he would not appear by any means to have settled down upon a bed of roses. The Central Asian question, with all its perplexing difficulties, met him upon the very threshold of that gorgeous Empire he has gone to govern. The London Times of the 15th February, in a leading article upon the subject of India, and the attitude of Russia thereanent, says :—The occupation of Afghanistan by Russia, or even the assumption of an exclusive Russian Protectorate over a country so worthless for any but military purposes, could not be permitted by Great Britain. Such a movement could have but one meaning and one effect; it would make Russia the master of the western approaches to Hindostan. Whatever her professions or intentions might be, she could not hold this position without impairing throughout India, that confidence in the stability of our power which alone enables us to rule that vast population of various creeds and races with 70,000 European soldiers. The march of a Russian force upon Herat would be all but equivalent to a declaration of war, and we are bound to remember that Herat is nearer in distance to Bokhara and Astrabab, than it is to the Indus. An advance in the opposite direction upon the cities of Eastern Turkestan, would not have so grave a significance, because our frontier is guarded on that side by physical obstacles which it would be scarcely possible for an invading army to surmount.....In short, without affirming that Russia has already arrived at the extreme limit of her legitiimate expansion in Asia, we are prepared to maintain that her progress ought henceforward to be vigilantly watched. After speculating upon what, if any, precautionery measures ought to be adopted, it suggests that the most "straightforward and satisfactory mode of providing against the contingency of a collision would to open up direct negotiations with St. Petersburg upon the Asiatic relations of the two Powers." "Sooner or later," says our big cotemporary, "we must adopt this course, which, indeed, seems to have been contemplated by Sir Stafford Northcote before the end of 1867. There may be diplomatic reasons which render the present time inopportune for such overtures, but they cannot be described as premature. To all practical interest and purposes Russia is even now intrenched upon the Oxus, and will doubtless complete with the utmost despatch the connection between Turkestan and the Caucasus.....The real enemy of British rule in the East is also the enemy of Russian rule, as it is the implacable foe of Christianity and civilization—the spirit of Mohamedan intolerance which has so long rendered Central Asia almost inaccessible to European merchants and travelers.....We advocate, then, a policy of amity with Russia as the best solution of the Central Asian question.

DEPARTURE OF THE ELEVEN.—At 10 o'clock yesterday, the Eleven of the British Columbia Cricketers embarked on the steamship Active, for San Francisco direct, where they go to play an International match with the California Eleven. The names of both parties having been already published it will be unnecessary to repeat them now. We have only to add to the former list of our Eleven, the name of Mr. J. L. Fisher, who goes down as Umpire. It is hardly necessary for us to state that the occasion drew a large concourse of our citizens of all classes to Broderick's wharf, and that the usual hearty shaking of hands, waving of handkerchiefs and cheers, characterized the departure. Many an earnest wish for victory to our Eleven was expressed. Will they win? San Francisco alone has probably as many Englishmen as we have white men in the entire Colony. Should our's win it will be a great victory! We have made arrangements by which we hope to place before our readers the result of each day's play on the following morning. Probably two days playing will decide the matter.

THE NEW COLONIAL SECRETARY.—Lieutenant Philip Hankin, R. N. was sworn in yesterday as Colonial Secretary of British Columbia, by Governor Seymour.

JAMES GILLON, Interim Manager.
A. G. GILKISON, Acting Accountant.

I, James Gillon, do hereby declare to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the foregoing Abstract is a true and faithful account of the average amount of Assets and Liabilities within this Colony of the above Bank, during the period specified, and that the same was made up from the weekly Statements thereof, kept in pursuance of the "Banking Act," 1864.

Declared before me at Victoria, this 5th day of April, 1869.

A. F. PEMBERTON, S. M.

JAMES GILLON, Interim Manager.

CANADIAN SUMMARY.—Our Canadian files are to the 24th February. Minister Rose had gone to Washington in connection with the settlement of the claims by the Hudson Bay Company for property which, by the adjustment of the boundary on the Pacific Coast, was thrown into the United States Territory. Heavy snow falls were reported throughout the country, and railway communication was greatly impeded thereby. A very exciting snow-shoe race came off at Montreal. Harper won, making two miles in 14 minutes and 30 second. New Brunswick papers, under date Feb. 24th, state that numerous complaints are made of encroachments of American fishing vessels in the Bay of Fundy—as many as fifty or sixty American vessels being engaged in the herring fishery. Accounts from Deer Island state that the harbours are so crowded that our fishermen can hardly get their nets down in their own grounds. Mr. E. McDonald has been thrown overboard by the Repeal party in Nova Scotia. Mr. McDonald was Queen's Printer, and ranked next to Mr. Howe in point of ability, and like Mr. Howe, abandoned Repeal. The local Government claimed that the appointment fell within the patronage of the Province, and pressed the dismissal of Mr. McDonald, with the hope, it is believed, that the Governor would refuse, and thereby afford them an opportunity of resigning and going to the constituencies upon an issue in which they would have, in all probability, been sustained. They were, however, denied the opportunity, as Governor Doyle acceded to their request.

SALE OF PROPERTY.—We particularly desire to draw the attention of the public, to the Sale by Auction this day, of Town and Suburban Property, by Mr. Lumley Franklin, Yates Street. Among other Real Estate to be sold, is the desirable Orchard and Residence of Capt. Good, formerly owned by Mr. Tuite. It is only 1½ mtles from town, and in fine order, affording a capital opportunity to anyone desiring at once a homestead, and a good income, as the fruit trees alone are said to produce between 5 and 6 hundred dollars. There are also some well situated Town Lots, one at the corner of Blanchard and Fisgard Streets, opposite the residence of Capt. Thain; a house and lot on View Street; and Mr. Green's residence, on the Church Reserve, opposite that of the Bishop of Columbia, a first class built dwelling, with a fine garden, conservatory, and commanding a splendid view of the town and harbour. Esquimalt and other lots are added, which, together, will doubtless, even in these times, attract a full attendance of bidders. The Sale will take place at 11 o'clock.

SUCCESS ATTEND THEM.—The entire apparatus for the Leech River Hydraulic Company, with a good stock of provisions, left we understand, early yesterday morning, and will reach their destination to-day. Two excellent men to assist have also been selected and will follow out with dispatch. After the innumerable difficulties, Mr. Harnet has had to contend with, in carrying out the undertaking, he merits the best success. It certainly will be a great day for Victoria, and the colony at large, if his expectations be fully realized.

CLEARING UP.—As the smoke clears away and excitement abates, the condition of matters at Virginia City becomes more distinct. Although the mortality would scarcely appear to have been much overrated in the first estimate, there is not reason to apprehend very great injury to the mines; but that is, in itself a consideration of secondary importance when compared with the fearful loss of life and suffering attending the casualty.

RECIPROCITY.—The question of a Commercial Reciprocity Treaty between the United States and the British North American Provinces is, we learn, for the moment in abeyance. The Earl of Clarendon will, however, bear in mind the interest of British Columbia, on the next consideration of the subject.

FROM NANAIMO.—The Str. Sir James Douglas, Capt. Clark, returned from Nanaimo yesterday, bringing a number of passengers, and a considerable quantity of produce from the settlements. There is no news of importance. Mr. Morley, J. P., brought down an Indian, charged with the murder of Roinson, on Salt Spring Island, over a year ago.

SMALL POX.—We learn that Indians coming from the American side have introduced small pox in the Harrisonmouth District. It is stated that on the 5th three Indians died of this disease at Harrisonmouth, and that there were several other cases reported. It would be well that some attention were given to this matter.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock an unoccupied dwelling on Fort Street, owned by Mr. Montero, from some unknown cause took fire, and before the Engines could be got on the ground, was in flames. The building, was insured for its full value in the Royal. The firemen were quickly on the spot and succeeded in saving the adjacent buildings.

PARIS FASHIONS FOR 1869.—These may now be seen in perfection at "London House," Government street, the last Express having brought one of the very choisest invoices of Drapery, Silk Mersery and Fancy Dry Goods that has yet been opened in Victoria. *

EARLY CLOSING.—We have been requested to state that on and after the 10th inst., the following Dry Goods Stores will close at 2.30, p.m. every Saturday: A. B. Grey, T. Wilson & Co. Victoria House, London House.

DEPARTURES.—Among those who went by the Active yesterday were Charles McNab Esq., director of the Bank B. N. A., H. O. Teideman, S. Driard, H. Adamson, Mrs. Digby Palmer, and a number of Victorians who intend to return by next boat.

REDUCTION.—In future, T. N. Hibben & Co., will sell all English newspapers at 25 cents instead of 37½ cents, as heretofore. Also the four English Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, will be furnished to subscribers for $14 per annum.

RETURNED.—Amongst the passengers by the Gussie Telfair yesterday was Mr. Godfrey Brown, well and favourably known in this community. Mr. Brown was warmly welcomed back by his numerous friends.

THE ACTIVE sailed yesterday morning at 10 o'clock for San Francisco direct, with 45 passengers and the following freight: 80 tons of salt, 50 tons of Telegraph wire, and a quantity of hides and wool &c.

FAREWELL VISIT.—We understand that the Admiral and Mrs. Hasting, will this day pay their farewell visit to His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Seymour, at the Government House.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.—The str. Leviathan arrived during Thursday night. She brought a few passengers, amongst who mwere Mr. H. H Nagle, Mr. J. Smith, and Mr. U. Nelson.

FROM PORTLAND.—The Gussie Telfair, from Portland, arrived yesterday at 4½ p.m., bringing 30 passengers, 175 tons of freight, and 9 bags of mail and express matter.

POLICE COURT.—Two summons cases, both of which were dismissed, occupied the Court yesterday. Nothing appeared on the Criminal record.

SCOTCH HOUSE.—A McLean & Co., are just opening a fine assortment of Summer hats, and clothing received by last express. *

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, will sail for New Westminster at 6 o'clock this morning, carrying Barnard's Cariboo Express.

THE SAGANAW, left the harbour yesterday after noon, under orders for San Francisco.

THANKS to Mr. Goodhue, Purser of the Gussie Telfair, for files of late papers.

A RAILWAY JUBILEE.—The enterprising people of Chicago would appear to be determined to make the occasion of the opening of the Pacific Railway one of the events of the age. The telegraph informs us that "Resolutions were presented in the Common Council" providing for a celebration in that city, "on the opening of the Pacific Railroad," and that all persons of distinction residing under the Star Spangled Banner on the Pacific, are to be the guests of that great and wonderous city. Wonder if any invitations will extend to British Columbia. !
